

The Craig Knapton Community Spirit Award: $500.00

Mr. Knapton is a long-term Director and one of the founding Members of a4k. He has served as our President and Past President over many years since the organization was established back in 2002. The award is to commemorate and recognize the spirit and leadership he has brought to a4k and to his work in the community. Following Craig Knapton's lead, the successful candidate will be able to represent qualities of teamwork, collaboration, hard work and the spirit of giving back to the community either through leadership, volunteering, mentoring others, or fundraising projects etc. (Your essay must express why you believe you fulfill these qualities.)

Please read below for specific criteria and how to apply.

Basic Criteria

- 1) Applicant must be finishing high school in 2024
- 2) Applicant must be pursuing some sort of post-secondary education or training in 2024/2025
